

Resident Scholarship Application 2010-2011 Academic Year

Instructions:

Please submit the complete scholarship application and required attachments to the Admissions Office by March 12, 2010. By submitting this application the Admissions Committee will consider you for the following scholarship programs based on the eligibility criteria:

- Resident Grants
- Mitsui USA Foundation Scholarship
- Canadian Friends of International House Scholarship (MacGuigan or McLaine)

Although you may be eligible for more than one of the above programs it is only possible to receive one (except the Canadian Friends of International House Scholarship).

 There is a separate application for the Women's International Leadership Program (WIL). Applications are reviewed by the WIL Advisory Council. You may apply to the WIL Program and also be eligible for other I. House scholarships.

Please be sure you have included all required attachments listed in the checklist for each scholarship. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed until they are completed. Award of a scholarship is contingent on admission and you will not learn of the scholarship decision prior to the admission decision.
